

As part of its initiative in support of refugees, WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) is currently inviting applications for two of the following positions (employment is limited to a period of 3 months):

INTERNS who have been granted asylum in Austria
20 hours/week

---

Duties and responsibilities

Interns are expected to assist WU's academic and service units by working on specific research projects, retrieving information, conducting interviews, preparing various documents and materials, processing data and doing translation work (e.g. at WU's Departments of Management, Socioeconomics, Economics, Information Systems and Operations, Research Institute for CEE Legal Studies, Research Service Center, Executive Academy and Campus Management).

Skills and qualifications

WU is looking for interns who speak German or English, are reliable, have started or completed an education in business, economics, the social sciences, or law, and ideally have work and/or entry-level experience in academic work and research techniques.

The gross monthly salary is € 494. The interns selected will be employed under a freelance service contract.

If you are interested, please submit your application on our website at www.wu.ac.at/jobs (reference no. 3601). Please also enclose your CV and your official notification of asylum status or your refugee travel document. Please make sure to indicate your main areas of interest.

We are looking forward to receiving your application.